

ENGLISH

Level 3

Small Talk

- How has your day been? Have you done anything interesting?
- How has the weather been recently?
- Are you meeting any friends this week?

Conversation

- Which colour is the scariest? Which is the cutest? Which is the ugliest? Why?
- How can you stop a bully?
- The farmyard animals have learnt to talk. What do you say to them?

Vocabulary: Nature

herb
soil leaf branch
root trunk
germ bacteria virus

Killing the Goose that Laid the Golden Eggs (review)

What is the story of the Goose that Laid the Golden Eggs?
What is its moral?

Theme: Musical Genres

classical, opera, gospel, jazz, folk, barbershop, mariachi, salsa, rock, rap

Dialogue: Chores (pt 1)

Dave: I need a place to crash for a while while my house is getting decorated. Any ideas?

Philip: You can kip at mine if you like, if you don't mind sleeping on the sofa.

Dave: The sofa, the floor, the dog basket, anywhere is fine as long as I have a roof over my head.

Philip: Ok, I'll give you the spare set of keys later.

One rule, however: please don't trash my apartment.

Dave: Don't worry, I'll be good. I'll even help out with the chores.

Philip: Really? Thanks. That'd be great.

Dave: No problem. What needs done?

Philip: Not a lot. Do the dishes, take out the bin, do the laundry, feed the fish...

Dave: Consider me your maid for the duration of my stay...

Punctuation: semi-colon

1. In a long list

He loves everything about her: her hair; her clothes; her eyes; her nose; even the boyfriend that she chose.

I have never forgotten his stupid rules: never trust a man with a beard; never trust a woman with a beard; never listen to your parents; always listen to your doctor; and never eat anything that is blue.

2. Instead of a full-stop when the next sentence links (or instead of a comma + conjunction)

The sun shone through the fog; it was still too cold for him.

He's going to be a doctor; he's going to medical school next year.

Present Perfect (pt 2) (review)

The present perfect

action: finished

time: not finished

I have been to Hawaii 10 times.

I haven't eaten anything today.

The present perfect + for/since

action: not finished

time: on-going

I have done this job for 3 months.

She has lived here since 2006.

Idioms (review)

What do these idioms mean:

- (i) game plan?
- (ii) get away with murder?
- (iii) give s/b a leg up?

